For Students

Best Student Paper Competition 2021

We encourage students (undergraduate, graduate, PhD) to participate in the Best Student Paper Competition 2021. The Best Student Paper Competition is a highlight of each IAREP-SABE conference. Elsevier, the publisher of the Journal of Economic Psychology and the Journal of Behavioural and Experimental Economics sponsors the competition. More information about the award will be available at the conference website.

IAREP-SABE Early Career Researchers Workshop

IAREP and SABE traditionally offer young researchers an opportunity to present their research in front of experienced academics (mentors) in the field of experimental and behavioural economics and psychology.

This Early Career Researcher Workshop shall be organized in association with the IAREP-SABE 2021 virtual conference on June 10th, 2021 on the first day of the main conference prior to the beginning of its official programme. More information about the workshop will be available at the conference website.

Language

The official language of the conference is English.
